SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) -- PRESIDENT CARTER'S OVERHAUL OF THE NATION'S INTELLIGENCE OPERATIONS MADE STANSFIELD TURNER THE MOST POWERFUL CIA DIRECTOR IN HISTORY, BUT HE WILL BE NO "CZAR."

"THE IDEA THAT ANYONE WILL BE A CZAR OF INTELLIGENCE IS UTTERLY FOREIGN TO THE CONCEPT IN THIS PLAN," TURNER SAID AT A NEWS CONFERENCE FRIDAY.

ON THURSDAY, CARTER GAVE TURNER, AN ADMIRAL WHO WAS HIS CLASSMATE AT ANNAPOLIS, "FULL CONTROL" OVER THE BUDGETS FOR ALL NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES, ESTIMATED AT BETWEEN $5 BILLION AND $9 BILLION A YEAR AND FORMERLY OVERSEEN BY THE PENTAGON.

TURNER, IN SAN FRANCISCO TO SPEAK TO THE COMMONWEALTH CLUB, SAID HIS NEWLY ACQUIRED CONTROL OF THE PURSE STRINGS WILL NOT LEAD TO A SUPER-AGENCY.

"NOTHING IN THIS IS SO CLEAR THAT YOU CAN AFFORD TO RELY ON ONE MAN, ONE GROUP OR AGENCY ONLY."

BUT HE REAFFIRMED THE LONGTIME REFUSAL OF CIA DIRECTORS TO DISCLOSE HOW THE AGENCY SPENDS ITS MONEY LEST "AN ADVERSARY FIND OUT WHERE YOUR'RE PUTTING YOUR EMPHASIS, AND THAT'S WHERE HE PUTS HIS COUNTER-EMPHASIS."

IN OTHER COMMENTS, TURNER ASSURED LISTENERS THAT THE CIA HAD COME A LONG WAY FROM QUESTIONABLE METHODS OF THE PAST, INCLUDING THE USE OF DRUGS AND PROSTITUTES TO ACQUIRE INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION.

"TODAY CERTAINLY THAT IS ABHORRENT TO YOU, AND I CAN ASSURE YOU THAT THIS KIND OF ACTIVITY IS NOT AND WILL NOT BE TOLERATED IN OUR INTELLIGENCE OPERATIONS TODAY," HE SAID.

"WE HAVE NO WITTING OR UNWITTING TESTING ON HUMAN BEINGS. WE ARE MAKING A VERY STRENUOUS EFFORT TO FIND VICTIMS, BUT DON'T KNOW IF THEY CAN BE FOUND OR HELPED."
